ESTÉE LAUDER

We all love the spa treatments on offer in our city, but what can you do at home to maintain that glow? Estée Lauder has developed a trio of exfoliating masks that remove grime and impurities to reveal fresh skin. "Without regular exfoliation skin may become dry and patchy. Pores may become clogged as a result of the constant assault from dirt, grime and oil," explains Dr Daniel Maes, Vice President, Global Research & Development, Estée Lauder. Sparkling Clean Purifying Exfoliator, Perfectly Clean Fresh Balancing Exfoliator and Soft Clean Moisture Rich Exfoliator are available now.

HELENA RUBENSTEIN

Ten years ago, Helena Rubenstein launched a revolutionary foundation called Spectacular that became a best-seller thanks to its lighter-than-air texture and long-lasting finish. Now, Spectacular has been reformulated and redesigned, with new packaging by legendary Bazaar creative director Fabien Baron, and includes a pump dispenser to measure just the right amount of foundation. New to the formulation is the "Radiance Maximizer Pigment", which combines flattering red pigment with pearl for natural radiance that doesn't look dull, even after 12 hours.

CLINIQUE

In our harsh Middle Eastern environment – heat and sun combined with hard water and constant air-conditioning – free radical damage to our skin is a constant danger. We know the benefits of eating antioxidant-rich foods like blueberries and almonds, but we need to apply antioxidants to the skin surface as well. In summer, skin needs moisture and antioxidant protection to replenish and nourish it. Luckily, Clinique saves the day with Continuous Rescue Antioxidant Moisturizer, a new daily cream that releases over time, so skin feels constantly hydrated and protected from pollution.

GIVENCHY

Givenchy's Very Irresistible fragrance is a favourite with free spirits like Liv Tyler. Now the fruity floral has been released in a limited summer edition, inspired by tropical holidays. The bottle, with its distinctive twist, graduates from pink to orange to evoke a sunset, while the scent has aquatic notes, a hint of lychee fruits and frangipani flowers. As it warms on the skin, the base notes are released, inspired by forests and quiet beaches. The creator, Sophie Labbé, describes the new scent as "the caress of cool water on sun-warmed skin." Try it now and be transported to a sensory paradise.

YVES SAINT LAURENT

Yves Saint Laurent is inspired by the women of Paris for the new summer make-up palette called "Love". The limited edition compact is the perfect accessory, covered in sparkly brown leather, sprinkled with gold hearts. The colours, inspired by Mr Saint Laurent's favourite shades, recall the classics of YSL Haute Couture. The eyeshadows in Parisian Night, Mink Seduction and Tender Pink create soft looks for day and drama for night, while the perfect, classic red lipstick – Rouge Pure Shine in Red Desire – suits all skintones. It's a palette you will really fall in love with.
